THE WORLD

Imagine being part of an exclusive community of around 200 or so ultrahigh-net-worth individuals from across the globe who share one common interest: to explore the world in utmost comfort and privacy without any of the usual travel-related hassles. Billing itself as the largest, privately owned residential yacht on Earth, The World allows you to do just that. It has only 165 luxury residences, which can be customised to each owner's preferences. The residences range in size from 290 sq ft for an Ocean Studio to 3,242 sq ft for a Three-Bedroom Residence. With 12 decks, The World offers a gamut of distractions for young and old, such as a spa, a fitness centre with personal trainers, restaurants that offer fine and casual dining options, and the only full-sized regulation tennis court at sea. While a full complement of crew ensures that life on The World runs smoothly, residents can also play their part. The 2024 itinerary, for example, has been curated by the residents who already call The World their home. More than 90 ports of call are in store, beginning in Antarctica and ending in Mexico, with stops in Australia, Asia and more in between. Adding depth to these explorations are a team of experts, who will conduct workshops, lectures and excursions for hands-on immersion experiences.
